Dear Lou Ann,

I am writing this to touch base with you regarding my permission request for using the NFB public email archives for research purposes that I sent to President Riccobono last Monday. Would you mind keeping me posted about whether there was any update on this topic?

This approval will greatly help me initiate and finish my dissertation research in a timely manner.

I am looking forward to hearing back from you.

Appreciatively,

JooYoung

Hi Joo Young,

Did you see the email I sent you earlier today? Given that you emailed President Riccobono about your research and that the archives are publicly available, I think it is ok for you to start your research. I will be confirming this with him when I meet with him next Tuesday.

Thank you very much for confirming this, Lou Ann!

I have refreshed my inBox and have found your earlier message sent this morning.
I am very sorry for this doubled email.

Yes, please let me know if there is any issue regarding this study
when you meet with him.
In the meanwhile, I will officially begin my study from today.

Hope that you have a good afternoon.

All the best,

JooYoung
